JACKET BUZZ

SAY IT . . .

Upon entering the VHS parking lot, one might notice a traditional brick school building. But when one enters the doors of VHS he or she might notice a few of the unique and unusual aspects of Vernon. First, if a person is not from here there is no point in attempting to understand what VHS students are talking about! We even have our own language here at VHS. Created by Jamie Holley is the "Hung Sung" language. If someone says, "hung E lung lung O," he is saying hello "Vernon Style." Also, it is not a wise decision to take a compliment too seriously at VHS. A student might tell you, "You look nice today," but don't be surprised if your bubble gets burst by the ever popular "NOT"! If you know Vernon, then you know that the most important thing to Vernonites is GOSSIP! You'll hear plenty of that at VHS. Now please allow us, the yearbook staff, to show you how VHS does and says everything "WITH STYLE."

. . . WITH STYLE

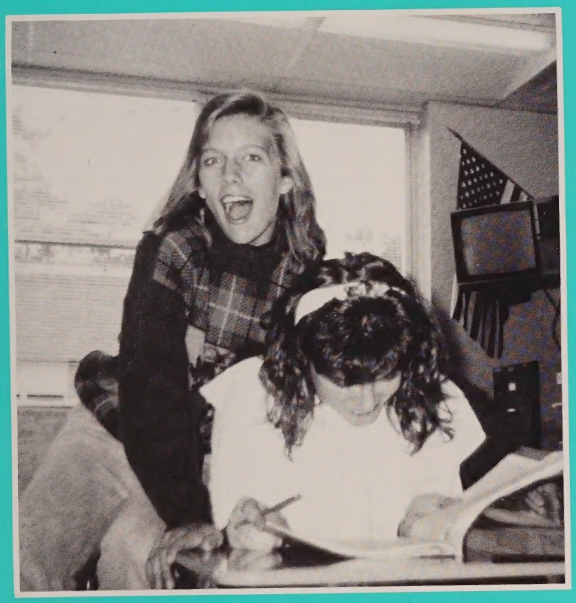
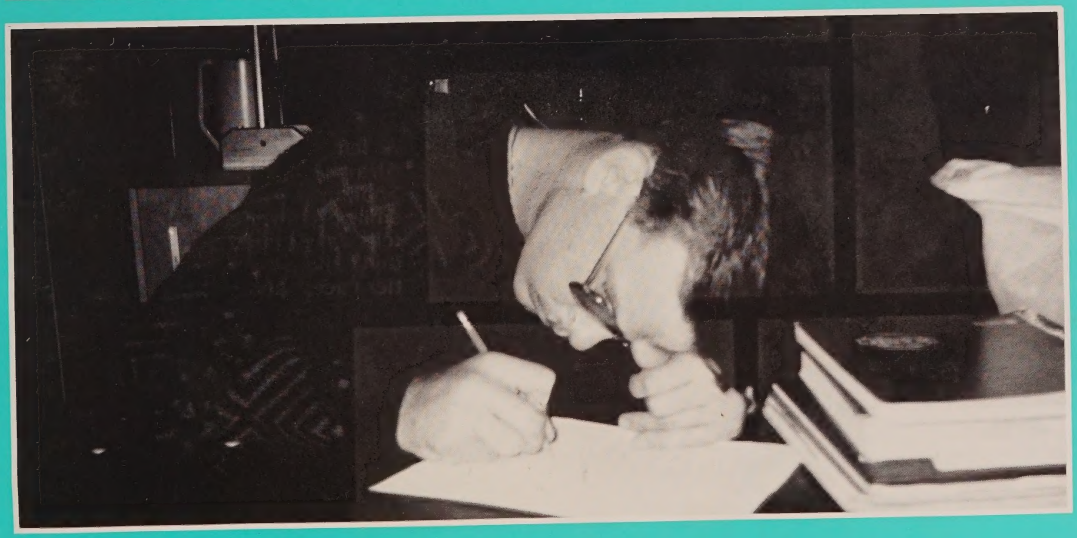
Academics

"Studying VHS Style"



Vernon High has a wide range of challenging academic studies. Learning requires communication between the teachers and the students. Academics includes all classes at Vernon and at the Washington/Holmes Vocational Technical Center. Vernon High School has many honors programs and some that are dually enrolled with Chipola Jr. College, which offer students a wide curriculum. Left, Jennifer Riley is shocked that Lindy Tyre is doing homework. Below, Chastity Reno tries to figure out a computer. Bottom, Kenny Brock is actually doing his classwork.



WHAT'S YOUR OPINION?

This year Vernon High School has seen the effects of a lower school budget. Not many people are happy with the cut-backs of funding to Florida schools, and all are hoping our legislators will be able to come up with some viable solutions to the monetary problems Florida is facing. As you all know, the lottery in Florida was started to help provide additional funding for schools, but now it seems as though we have less. A few students voice their opinion on this topic.

JUST speak YOUR MIND

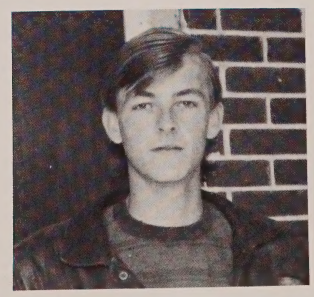
"I think it stinks. The lottery was started to help fund Florida schools, but now the schools are getting less money. It's all a big lie."

Nicole Sciancalepore, Junior

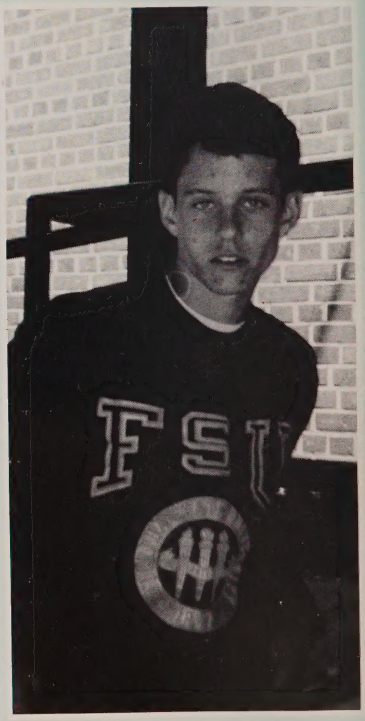
"It's unfair. Now they are cutting the budget of the schools and now we have less money for our education."

Ryan Carnley, Sophomore

"I think they lied and used the schools as an excuse to get a lottery started in Florida."



Kevin Burch, Junior



FAMILIAR FACES

Top left, Mrs. Sapp and P.J. Trombley help Dustin Park bring out his maternal side. Top center, Mrs. Cochran strikes a vogue with her favorite sidekicks. Top right, Kevin White serves with style on our new tennis courts. Above, sophmores exhibit their "Jacket Pride" at Homecoming festivities. Right, Nancy Alford and Tonia Gilley share a joke with the photographer.

Students often emulate famous people, so it pays to know who's in style and who's not. Country music, with Garth Brooks and the Judds, has become very popular recently. Movie star Kevin Costner is still a box office draw, and the guys from "Beverly Hills 90210" cause a sensation.

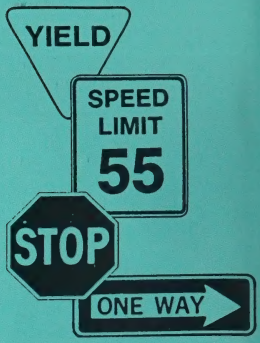
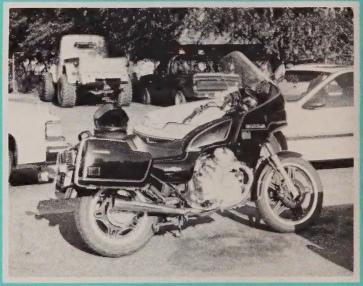
RIDING IN STYLE



Waking up at the break of dawn and having to find some means of transportation to school was not exactly every Vernon High School student's idea of a terrific morning. Nevertheless, students made the long trip to school by driving themselves or riding the school bus. Just by watching the parking lot it's obvious that most students prefer their own means of travel. The spaces consist of vehicles of every year and design. You could see practically anything that would run. The bus also provided many students with a convenient ride to school. It wasn't always easy to admit that you rode the "Yellow Cheese Wagon," but students reluctantly yet courageously braved the ride every day. There were many different ways to get around, but no matter what the means of transportation, V.H.S. students always seemed to find a way to Ride in Style.

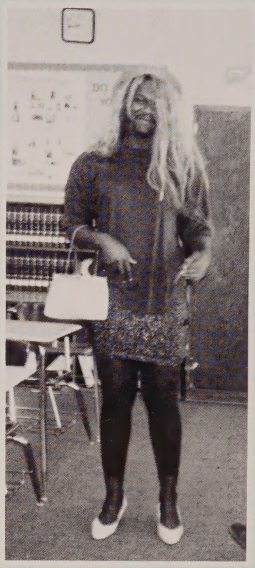


STYLIN' IT AT VHS

Clockwise from top left: Debra Gipson, Rista Courtney, Mark Brock, Teresa Pettis and Marie Pettis hang out in style after lunch. Nicole Sciancalepore gives her companions Marcia Carroll and Joel Cruz a bear hug. Ashley Batchelor and Rista Courtney let us know what true friendship is — special and warm. A group of girls give their best impression of the Rockettes. Cindy and Lindy Tyre show their sisterly love.

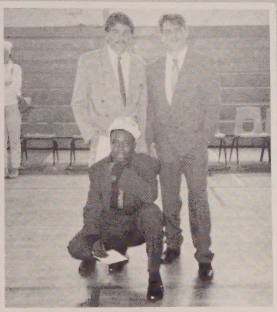
HOMECOMING

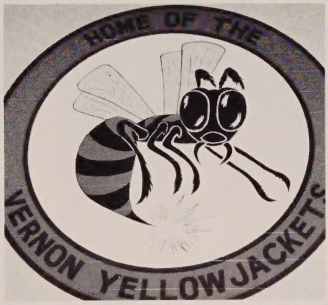
The 1991 Homecoming was the best, most competitive homecoming VHS has ever hosted. Spirit between the grades for our school was at its highest. Competition for the spirit stick was the main event, having been very close. The year's winner of the spirit stick was the junior class. Also at VHS were the usual Spirit Week dress-up-days. Monday was Opposite Day, where girls dressed up like boys and boys dressed liked girls. Tuesday was Clown Day, Wednesday was Animal Day, Thursday was Baby Day, and Friday was the ever popular Orange and Blue Day. There were, in addition, many other exciting activities at VHS during spirit week. There was a best legs contest in which each grade selected a boy and a girl to be judged on how great looking their legs were. Probably the most exciting activity next to the pep rally was the intergrade tug-of-war. Six men from each grade were chosen to pull the rope for spirit points. There was also a three-legged race, the ever popular pickle barrel, door judging, float judging, and the inevitable pep rally. 1991 Homecoming was super!



Here are some of the many participative students on dress-up-days. Do you know who any of these people are? Take a guess. At top, are our many dignified young men and women. At middle right, two VHS students show the animal in them. Bottom, students and staff just clowning around.

Left: Here is VHS's 1990-91 Homecoming Queen Brandi Bright waving an enthusiastic goodbye. Below: 1991-92 Homecoming nominee Stephanie Peterson riding in the parade. This year's parade included over 50 entries, and a number of them were outside organizations. The Homecoming theme was "Things That Make You Go Hmmmmmm."





Vernon High School congratulates Deontra Andrews, our 1991-92 Mr. Jacket. He is shown here with runners-up James Edwards and Doyle Guy. All of the guys were very talented and did an exceptional job. There were a total of eight participants, (also shown, above, far left) two from each grade, and each one brought his own unique personality to the Mr. Jacket contest. But there could only be one winner, and when it came time to announce that person, a hush fell over the gym as the M.C., Faye Griffin, announced Deontra Andrews as the new Mr. Jacket. Deontra is a Junior and is very popular among his peers. Once again, congratulations, Mr. Jacket!

Homecoming Queen

At halftime of the Vernon High School Homecoming Game, the crowd became hushed, awaiting the sight of the nominees. As each young lady walked down the 50-yard line to stand facing the home side of the stadium, the fans listened attentively to the announcer as he revealed the name of the 1991-92 Vernon High School Homecoming Queen: Nancy Michelle Alford! Nancy, the 18-year-old daughter of Mac and Melissa Alford, was nominated by senior football player Chris Tyre.

Nancy Alford is shown at right with her escort, brother-in-law Kent Hertzog. Nancy is also directly below taking her coronation cruise. At bottom left are second runner-up Teresa Crawford, Nancy, and first runner-up Stephanie Peterson. Shown at bottom right are the Homecoming court attendants Jessica Gilmore — eleventh grade, Herrika Lovett — ninth grade, and Crystal Page — tenth grade.

At the far left is senior Dawn Walters. Her escort is her father Steve Walters. Dawn was nominated by Clifton Spooner.

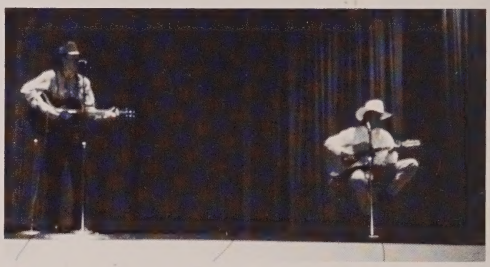
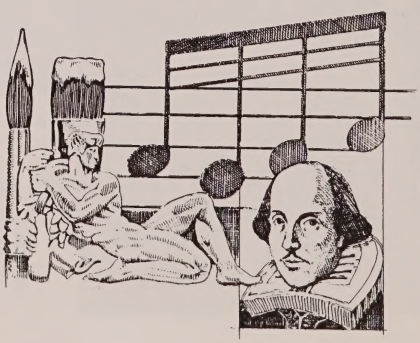
SPRING FESTIVAL OF THE ARTS



On May 14 1992, the Fine Arts Department of Vernon High School hosted the annual Spring Festival of the Arts. First came the musical part of the program in which Mr. Seaboch directed the band and the chorus. The chorus performed music from Rogers and Hammerstein on Broadway. The band performed music from Cluster, Fluster, Bluster March, Fiddler on the Roof, and The Little Mermaid. The Drama department next issued forth its many talented actors in a play entitled, "Meet Miss Stone Age." After the Drama production, Michael Dalton and Eric Trombley performed a special song, and then the art lovers were released to enjoy the different young Vernon artists' work on display.



SR. AWARDS ASSEMBLY

On Monday, May 25, Seniors returned to be honored with an awards assembly. After the faculty members and community officials awarded the seniors, members of the paper-staff read the class history, class prophecy, and the last will and testament of each senior. The assembly ended with the annual ring turning ceremony directed by Mrs. McCrary.

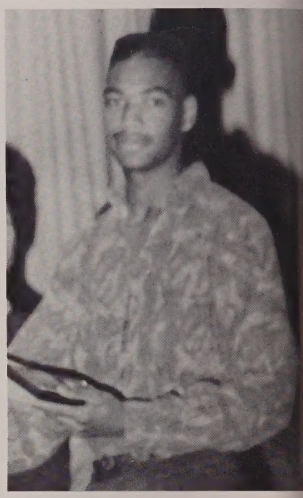
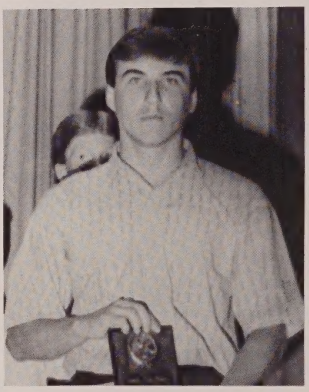
ATHLETIC BANQUET

On May 15, 1992, a banquet was held in the Vernon High School cafeteria to honor athletes who have participated in various sports activities throughout the school year. These students represented VHS to the best of their ability and showed their devotion by spending many hours at afternoon practices. Many individual awards were presented, the top award being the Mr. and Miss Jacket awards, which were presented to Chris Tyre and Mary Finch.





Left to right, top to bottom: Mr. and Miss Jacket — Chris Tyre and Mary Finch. Angela Alford is given an award for her participation in volleyball and basketball. Michael Brown is awarded for his participation in basketball this season. Shawanna Brown smiles proudly, showing off the plaque she received for her involvement in basketball. Mark Brock is recognized for his contribution to this year's baseball team. Decarlos Peterson recieves an award for basketball. A group shot of students receiving awards.

FHA / FFA BANQUETS

Spring is the time for banquets and this year was no exception. The annual FFA Banquet was held May 11, and the FHA Banquet was held on May 21. Both took place in the VHS cafeteria. Jennifer Riley, FFA president, presided over the ceremony, with the help of State FFA Vice-President Ralph Yoder, rewarding members who excelled in various events. The FHA Banquet was presided over by president Candice Brock, who conducted the business part of the meeting and awarded deserving members in the many proficiency categories. Both banquets were total successes.

A Night to Remember

PROM '92

The 1992 Junior-Senior Prom was held at the Dothan Holiday Inn on May 9. The setting was gala, decorated with the senior class colors of garnet and gold. A number of VHS students and their dates attended, all dressed up in their finery. The food, the dancing, the atmosphere, the romance — all contributed to the total effect of this most unforgettable evening.

Left to right, top to bottom: Eric and Faye are caught mid-dance; Vicky and Eric Pettis enjoy a quiet moment; Clay and his date strike a sophisticated pose; Melanie's date keeps track of her memorabilia; Melanie has him on his knees, begging for a dance; Carla and Kari gather up their keepsakes; Prom King and Queen: Eric and Nancy.

ALL said AND DONE

GRADUATION

The familiar strains of Pomp and Circumstance were heard Friday night, May 29. The senior class filed into a hot gym and Nancy Alford welcomed the crowd. Tasha Peterson gave the address in front of a hushed audience. Mrs. McCrary next presented scholarships to deserving seniors, and then Eric Trombley, Michael Dalton, and Mr. Seaboch played and sang the senior class song. With the superintendent's assistance, Mrs. McCrary handed out diplomas, after which the seniors let out a shout and tossed their caps up in the air before sedately filing out to gather hugs and congratulations.

MISS [redacted] VERNON

On Saturday March 21, 1992, the annual Miss Vernon pageant was held in the Vernon High School cafeteria. The pageant was sponsored by the Student Council. There were six categories: Miss Tiny Tot Vernon, Little Miss Vernon, Middle Miss Vernon, Teen Miss Vernon, Junior Miss Vernon, and Miss Vernon. There were four contestants for Junior Miss Vernon and five for Miss Vernon. These were — Junior: Niki Reddick, Rhonda Ball, Crystal Page, and Rista Courtney; Miss: Lori Rhoton, Kimberly Bush, Amanda Hewett, Jeanne Block, and Dede Peterson. Although there were many lovely contestants, there could only be one winner. The young woman chosen as Junior Miss Vernon was Rista Courtney, and the young woman chosen to represent our town as Miss Vernon 1992-93 was Miss Lori Lynn Rhoton.

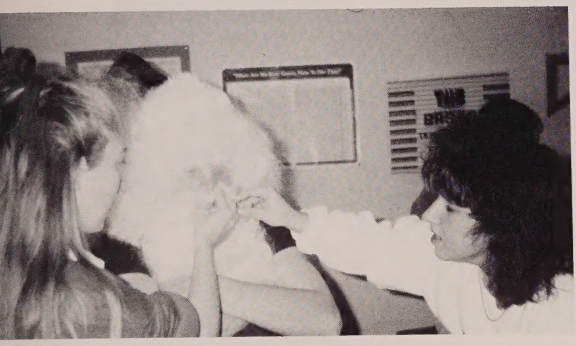
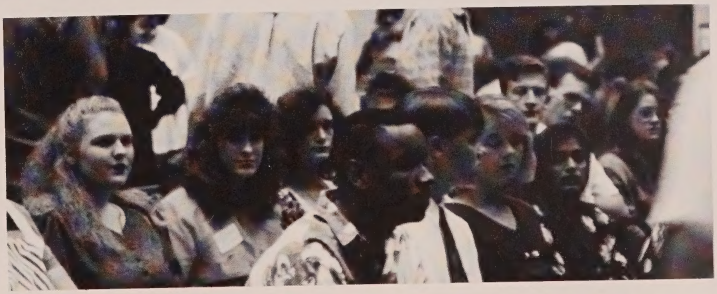
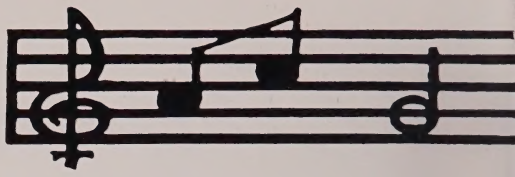
Organizations





1991-92 organizations were an integral part of school life. Becoming a member of an organization helped eligible students become responsible adults for the future. Organizations allowed students to develop skills and influenced their ability to achieve their goals in life. These activities were fun yet educated students to make positive lifestyle choices.

BAND



The Vernon High Scool Marching Band has done an excellent job this year. They competed in two marching competitions at Pace, Florida and FBA held in Panama City, and received Superior rating for both competitions. A few of their many performances this year were the dedication for the new gym at the elementary school, marching performances, and the Christmas concert. Director Mr. James Seaboch taught these students how to set and meet their goals. He did an outstanding job as director. The school system appreciates Mr. Seaboch for devoting his time to help accomplish the schoolwide goal of excellence.

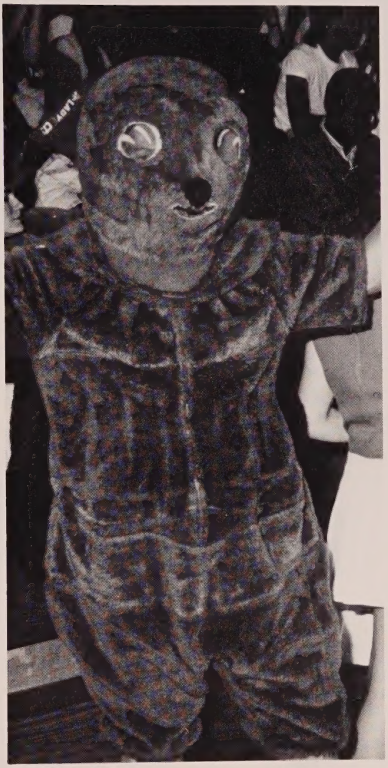
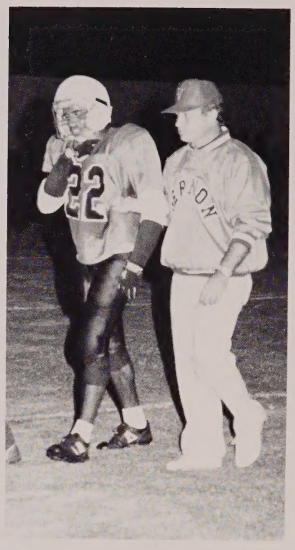
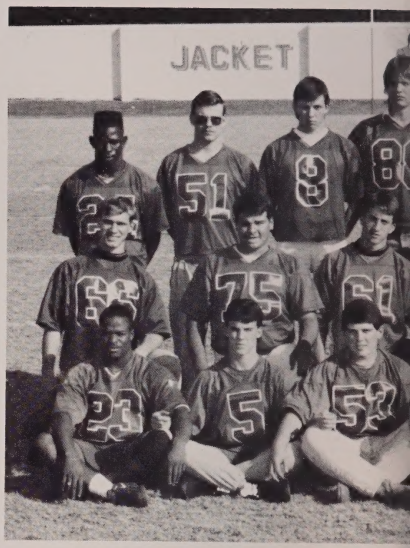
SPORTS



FOOTBALL





This year the Vernon High School Varsity Football team had a great season with a 4-6 record. The team worked hard and did an exceptional job, of which everyone was proud.

Not only did the team have to strive hard, but they also had to adjust to some changes. One major change was a new head coach, Mac Alford. Apparently this change was for the good of the team since this was one of Vernon's best seasons in the past ten years! Assistant coaches were Aaron Todd, Merle Bonner, Charles Brown, and Don Brown.

B-TEAM FOOTBALL

The 91-92 B-Team football team worked hard to overcome the disadvantage of a small team. They pulled together to come through the season. We look forward to these guys moving up to Varsity.

VARSITY

The 1991 Varsity Volleyball players are (kneeling) #11 Kim Adkison, #1 Angela Alford, #10 Marion Brown, #6 Luttrell Bowers, #8 Selena Siples, (standing) Jessica Gilmore, #2 Mary Finch, #5 Christenia Arnold, #7 Nina Haddock, #9 Teresa Jackson, #12 Shawanna Brown, and coach Kim Register.

Picture it: after a grueling day of trudging from class to class, the final bell of the day rings. It seems nearly everyone is loading the buses or driving away in their own vehicles. You, however, make your way to the gym, dress out, and then begin VOLLEYBALL PRACTICE, bunting the ball to a teammate and trying your best to spike it on your opponent's head. If this scenario sounds familiar, you were probably a member of this year's volleyball team. There was a lot of athletic talent shown, with the girls giving it their all the entire season. The end result may not have been a winning season, but it was a success nonetheless.

This year the boys worked tremendously hard and learned that to accomplish anything worthwhile, they must require of themselves hard work, dedication, and group effort. We are very proud of the team this year and we can only hope the following teams are as hard-working as "our boys."

C-H-E-E-R-L-E-A-D-E-R-S, oh yes, cause THEY are the best. And Vernon High School most definitely has the BEST! Whether on the field or on the court their enthusiasm and spirit were at a constant high. Under the sponsorship of Mrs. Shirley Haviland, they led our school through the good times as well as the bad. The long hours of hard work and strenuous exercise really paid of in the end. Pictured are back row, left to right, Dede Peterson, Debra Gibson, Raina Coatney, Jessica Gilmore, and Marie Pettis. Middle row, left to right, Sherry Pate, Teresa Crawford, Rista Courtney and Faye Griffin. Bottom row, Joan Spence.

GIRLS' TRACK

This year the 1991-92 girls' track team worked hard to accomplish their goals. They found out that it takes team work and dedication to do this. One of the team's goals was to attend the state track meet held in April. Those competing at this level were Nancy Alford, Terra Davis, and Jessica Gilmore. These girls could not have done it without the help of Coach Michael Brock and Coach Charles Brown.

JUNIORS

The Juniors take a very active role in the functions here at VHS. They proved this when they won the spirit stick at Homecoming. This year the Juniors have been very busy with fundraisers in order to have a successful Junior/Senior Prom. One example of their fundraising was selling magazines. The Junior class officers have also been very busy this year and are doing a great job of leading the rest of their class. They should be commended on a job well done.

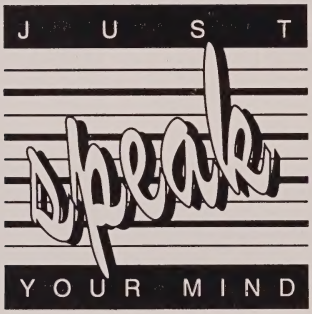
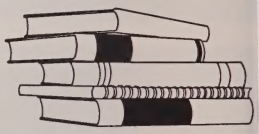
SEVENTH GRADE

In a poll of seventh graders' opinions, we asked two questions and selected seven answers to be published. The students interviewed were Terra Sturgill, Brenda Huff, Kathy Cushman, Walter Wilson, Christy Mills, Sara Carnley, and Jennifer Reis. The first question asked was "What privileges do you have in middle school that you did not have in elementary school?" The second question was "If you could go out with any person in the world for only two hours, who would it be and what would you do?"





Answers to Q #1 — Christy: "Get to talk to high schoolers sometimes." Sara: We don't have to walk in lines." Jennifer: We can talk in the lunchroom and sit where we want to." Q #2 — Terra: "Tom Cruise and I would go to the beach in Daytona and have a candlelight dinner for two." Brenda: "David Hennion! We would just have fun and get to know each other." Kathy: "Ryan Brock! We would get to know each other and maybe go to a fun park or a movie." Walter: "April F. — we would go to a restaurant, and I would take her dancing later." Pictured top to bottom, left to right, are T. Sturgill, K. Cushman, B. Huff, W. Wilson, C. Mills, S. Carnley, and J. Reis.

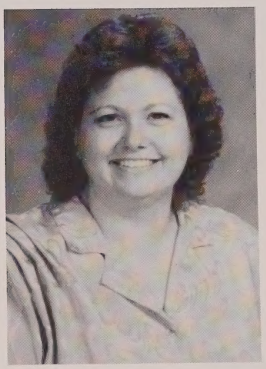
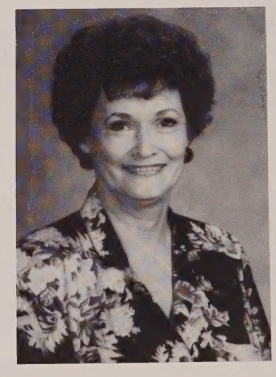
ADMINISTRATION

The 1991-92 administration and faculty was a vital part of life at VHS. Our principal (and principal of the middle school), Mrs. Ruth McCrary (right); our assistant principal, Mr. Howard Riley (top right); our guidance counselor, Mrs. Willie Mae Cook (center right); and the rest of our staff helped make this year a wonderful learning experience for our students.

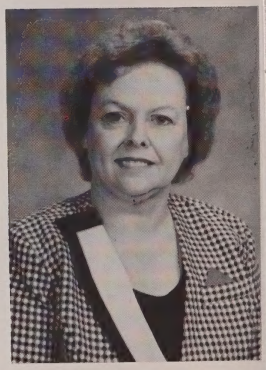


Mrs. Gloria Brock — Chapter 1 Aide

Mrs. Joyce Dorch — Bookkeeper



Mrs. Shirley Haviland — Office Secretary



Mrs. Margery Helms — Office Secretary

Left, Mrs. Imogine Owens has been a great substitute teacher this year. Right, Mrs. Dorch, Mrs. Kathy Pennington and Mrs. McCrary seem to be enjoying their lunch break.

Middle School Administration

The middle school administration and staff always had a ready smile and a helping hand for students and teachers alike. The leaders of this faculty were (left to right) Mr. Albert Robinson — vice principal, Mrs. Rubye Forehand — guidance counselor and TAP coordinator, and Mrs. Judy Tison — office secretary.

TEACHERS OF THE YEAR

The Vernon High School Teacher of the Year for this year is Mr. Buddy Pennington. He was also chosen as the Washington County Teacher of the Year, and has been teaching here for six years. The subjects he teaches are Drama, Spanish I, II, and III, and Leadership. When not in the classroom, Mr. Pennington works with Boy Scouts, the Student Council, and he also plays an active role in the Bonnet Pond Church.

Mrs. Linda Tyre was selected as the Vernon Middle School Teacher of the Year. She has been in the teaching profession for 25 years. The subjects she teaches are eighth grade English and chapter 1 English. In her spare time she is involved with many things such as being sponsor of the B-Team cheerleaders, the Panther Print, and the National Junior Honor Society. When outside of school, she enjoys teaching Sunday School at Bonnet Pond Church.

MARVIN

HARPER

1977-1992

Jacket Buzz staff would like to here commemorate seventh grader Marvin Harper, who died tragically in 1992. Marvin was born July 10, 1977, and was described as a quiet, friendly young man with great potential in basketball. Those teachers, administrators, and students at VMS who knew Marvin well will continue to miss him and remember him fondly.

The bus drivers and cafeteria workers' pictures were inadvertently omitted from the faculty and staff section, but they were simply too important to leave out completely.
